WASHINGTON CITY.

Land Office Decisions.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Copp's Land Owner contains the following land office decisions: In the case of Watson vs. Missouri River, Fort Scott and Gulf R. R. Co., it was decided that a pre-emptors claim is not forfeited on account of failure to make a payment within the time limited by laws, there being no adverse claimant to the claim and the tract is excepted from a grant to a railroad subsequently located.

The right to change from a pre-emption filing to a homestead entry is incident to and a part of the right given the pre emptor at the time he intimates his claim, and upon the change being made relates back to the date of his settlement, such homestead entry is governed by the condition of land at the date his pre-emption claim took affect, and if the land has become double minimum in price, he may homestead 160 acres, if the price was $1 25 per acre when the settlement was made.

Queen vs. Southern Pacific R. R. The act of July 27, 1866, is clearly intended to authorize the Southern Pacific Railroad Company to construct its road to San Francisco, and gives the company the right to select the route that is most desirable. The State of California could interfere if the road was built on a line not authorized by the State; but if that right were waived there was no power elsewhere to interpose. By the act of June 25, 1868, Congress treated this road and the one created by its authority and extended the time for its completion, and by joint resolution of June 28, 1870, expressly gave its consent to the line of road indicated by the map filed in the general land office January 3, 1867. The grant to this road took effect January 3, 1867, when the map referred to above was filed in the general land office.

Appointment by the President.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The President to-day appointed Wirt Sykes to be consul at Florence, Italy.

[illegible] Declines the Speakership Pro Tem.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Speaker Kerr repeatedly offered the speakership pro tem. to Randall and urged his acceptation; but the latter thought it would interfere with his duties as chairman of the appropriation committee.

Bill to Enable the Residents of Territories to Elect their Officers.

The committee on territories agreed to-day to report favorably on delegate Patterson's bill to enable residents of territories in the United States to elect their own officers. This will relieve the President of the power to appoint territorial governors and other officials, and place it in the hands of the people of the territories, who, however, do not seem in all cases to be anxious to exercise it.

Speaking of the bill allowing home rule in the Territories, the Sun's Washington special says this is a measure which, should it pass the House, will not be acted upon in the Senate this session. It is one of a class that the Republican Senators have resolved to lay over until next session, and its disposal then will be determined by the result of the elections. If the elections are in favor of the Republican party, the bill will be rejected, and if favorable to the Democrats, then the bill will pass, because it will take some patronage from the Democratic administration.

Chever will Testify.

Chever, who it was stated, went to Europe to avoid producing the papers relative to transactions of Jay Cooke, McCullough & Co., has arrived and will appear before the committee on expenditures in the navy department with his documents to-morrow, in the matter of the naval fund and that firm.

Blaine Investigation.

The judiciary committee will at once summon Sydney Dillon, Treasurer Rollins, Col. Scott, and government directors Harrison, Millard and Wilson, in the matter of the $64,000 scandal of the Union Pacific railroad. Notwithstanding Blaine's denial, it is due to all parties that a thorough investigation should be made.

Request [illegible] to Recall Paymaster Bradford.

The committee on naval affairs to-day sent a letter to Robeson requesting that Paymaster Bradford, who has been purchasing paymaster in London, be immediately recalled. This request is made for two reasons, one of which is that the committee desire Bradford as a witness; the other reason is, they regard it as improper that he should continue in position while the committee is reflecting on him.

Congress can Adjourn in June.

Congress can easily adjourn in June, the appropriation committee only awaits the revised estimates of [illegible] Taft, and the preparation of the Sunday civil bill, which is [illegible] the last appropriation bill prepared and is usually known as the omnibus bill. Of course the [illegible] dead-lock in the Senate must be taken into consideration: but if the Senate behaves itself, there will be no reason why Congress should not adjourn by the middle of June.

Cotton Investigation.

Investigation into the cotton business of the treasury department promises rich revelations. It is already shown that over $800,000 have been paid to attorneys for services for which there was no authority of law; while the employment of Judge Frazier, of Indiana, late member of the British American mixed claims commission, at a salary of $10,000 per annum, is also a violation of law. Bristow did not employ him. This is one of the extravagances which followed the appointment of Richardson as Secretary of the Treasury.

War Claims Referred.

The war claims committee to-day decided to recommit to the Southern claims commissioners three claims amounting to over $500,000, and for which ex-Congressman Taylor was attorney. He has declared that the whole bill shall be defeated, if he is to be wronged out of his fees merely because he has been indicted in New Orleans for being attorney for bogus claims. Taylor's clients say that he not only gets the entire appropriation but brings his clients in debt.

The Appropriation Committee about Finish Up.

The chairman of the appropriation committee said he was prepared to bring the business of the committee to a close in ten days. The ways and means committee, however, has yet to consider the new tariff and the revenue reform bill besides the funding measures. On Thursday the committee will consider the latter measures, and Tuesday, the bills relating to internal revenue.

Un[illegible] at the T[illegible] Department.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Considerable uneasiness is manifested at the Treasury Department over the unsatisfactory working of the silver bullion, and consultations have been held as to the method of averting the dearth of small change. It is maintained here that Secretary Bristow has already the power, if he chooses to exercise it, to prevent any further scarcity, and to relieve the country by paying out in exchange for legal tenders, or to meet in daily [illegible] the $3,000,000 of silver coin which was on hand on the 20th of January, 1875, when the specie resumption act became a law.

Emma Mine Investigation.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Before the foreign affairs committee to-day, Chittenden for Gen. Schenck, said if the committee should be of the opinion that certain correspondence of Park, Schenck and Fisher was proper to be considered he would waive all objections and leave the committee perfectly free to act. It was decided by the committee that the papers which have already found their way into print should not be received as evidence; but if Schenck wished to make a statement he is at liberty to do so.

Schenck then reviewed the letters, saying among other things, that as to the letter from Fisher to Duncan, dated Dec. 16, 1872, he did not know who Duncan was, but it seemed he was a stock broker with whom Fisher was dealing. While it was true that he gave Fisher such information as he possessed, it was utterly untrue that he had any stock operations with him. Fisher had many good points but was not always careful and acted from inference and made an improper use of Gen. Schenck's name. Alluding to another letter of Fisher's to Duncan, in which it was said that Schenck telegraphed Cheeseborough to sell 2,000 shares, Gen. Schenck said he was perfectly satisfied that he never telegraphed Cheeseborough to sell 2,000 shares, and such shares were never sold. These were communications passing through Fisher to his broker, and in no way possibly affected him (Schenck), and the use of his name by Fisher was without authority. The inferences were solely those of Fisher, for which Schenck said he was not in the remotest degree responsible.

NEW YORK, May 2.—The question as to the interlineation of two words in Gen. Schenck's letter of resignation has been again introduced. Hewitt said he had been represented in the associated press report as saying yesterday that the interlineations were in Park's handwriting, whereas he said they were in Schenck's handwriting. Schenck now concluded all the explanation he desired to make.

Lyon made a statement in support of parts of his former testimony, and took occasion to say, that on all occasions of his interviews with Park, the letter never used an unkind word, but on the contrary exhibited most friendly feelings toward him. He said he saw the original letter of resignation of Schenck, as director of the Emma Mine Company, at least what he supposed it to be. There was no reference in it to the mine or shares, but it stated he resigned only because he did not want to give his political enemies an opportunity to criticise his conduct. Park said to witness: I don't like this letter, and I am going to have a better one from Schenck. The impression of the witness was that Park wrote a final letter of resignation, and that Schenck copied it from Park's manuscript. He had told Hiram A. Johnson of these facts within twenty-four hours after he learned them. There was nothing about which he was more positive than about these two letters of resignation.

H. A. Johnson also gave some testimony, and corroborated what Lyon said concerning the letter of resignation. Witness saw the letter of the secretary of the Emma Mining Co., written subsequent to Schenck's resignation, in which it was said that Park had remarked to Lyon that the letter of resignation expressing his utmost confidence in the mine and in his associate directors, was a better endorsement of the mine than if Schenck had remained director of the company. The committee adjourned until to-morrow.

ATLANTIC CABLE.

True Bill found against one of the Lennie Crew.

LONDON, May 2.—The grand jury of the central criminal court returned a true bill against Rigmer. The trial is set down for to-morrow. It is expected to last three or four days.

Strikers Returned to Work.

Three thousand iron workers of Sheffield who were on a strike, resumed work at reduced wages.

Marshal MacMahon's Rule Respecting Pardons.

PARIS, May 2.—MacMahon, who has received many petitions for the pardon of political offenses, announces that every petition which does not emanate from the convict himself, will be summarily ejected.

Prussian Railway Bill Passed.

BERLIN, May 2.—In the Prussian chamber of deputies to-day, the railway bill passed its third reading by a vote of 216 to 160. To the bill is appended the resolutions proposed by Herr Larzen, asking the government simultaneously with the cession of the Prussian railways, to transfer to the Empire all of Prussia's right of supervision over them.

No Special Exemption for Navarre and the Basque Provinces.

MADRID, May 2.—Minister Canovas Del Castillo has informed the delegates from the North, who waited upon him and urged the preservation of the Fueros, that the Basque provinces and Navarre must be liable to conscription, and to pay taxes like other provinces. The delegates asked time to consider, and Canovas granted them five days.

Turkish War News.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 2.—Mukhtar Pasha reports by telegraph, that he had returned to Gatschke after another sanguinary engagement. He hopes his victory will lead to a termination of the rebellion. He says in the last battle which was fought, Sunday, while the troops were on the march to Gatschke, the insurgents numbered 14,000, and lost 4,000 killed and wounded, in addition to 4,000 on the previous two days fight. The Turks throughout the expedition lost 85 killed and 161 wounded. He declares the victory decisive.

What the other Side Says.

RAGUSA, May 2.—Slavonic accounts of the battle of Sunday assert that Mukhtar Pasha was defeated and compelled to take refuge in Gatschke, and that in four days fighting he lost 2,500 killed, while the insurgents lost only 400.

House of Commons.

LONDON, May 2.—In the House of Commons to-night Disraeli, in his speech, denounced as calumnious the statement by Lowe, at the liberal meeting in Bedford, that the Queen had asked two previous premiers to introduce a bill changing the royal titles, but both had refused. He denied the truth of the statement as far as it concerned himself and the late Earl Derby, and cited a letter from Gladstone denying that the Queen ever made such a proposal. In conclusion, Disraeli made a statement on behalf of the Queen, that Lowe's assertion was utterly unfounded.

No Objection to Austria's Occupation of Herzegovina.

The Times' Berlin dispatch says the symptoms that Russia does not object to the temporary joint occupation of Herzegovina by Austrian and Turkish troops, provided Austria consents. The present reform proposals are being replaced by something like the programme which the insurgents submitted to Baron Rodich. The insurgents profess readiness to lay down their arms when they receive the guaranties which they demand. Pacification depends on the wisdom of the Porte.

The King of Dahomey's Invitation Accepted.

The papers this morning publish the following: The King of Dahomey's reported invitation to Commodore Kennet, to come to Abomey and receive payment of the fine imposed upon him, for maltreating a British subject, in powder and balls, appears to have been accepted. Orders have been given for assembling the fleet at Whydah, to take active proceedings if the amount of the fine be not forthcoming. An opportunity, however, will be given to the King to change his present attitude, and hostilities will be postponed until June or later.

Winslow to be Delivered Up.

The British government has informed the American legation that it will release Winslow to-morrow, Wednesday, and that two other prisoners, Gray, of New York, and Brent, of Louisville, whose extradition is also claimed, will be released when their terms have expired. Although this notification has been given, the government has not formally replied to America's argument owing to the absence of Lord Derby, caused by the recent death of his mother.

In addition to the arguments already made public touching the interpretation of the act of 1870, America has adduced a precedent, occurring in 1871, wherein Chief Justice Cockburn ordered a surrender to France under similar circumstances, upon the opinion of the French consul that the prisoner would only be tried for the offense for which he was extradited, the Chief Justice remarking that without the consul's assurance, he should have decided against the prisoners.

Imperial Bank of Germany.

BERLIN, May 2.—The weekly statement of the Imperial Bank of Germany shows an increase of 5,457,000 marks.

Editor Sentenced to pay a Fine.

PARIS, May 3.—The manager of Droit de l'Homme, newspaper, has been sentenced to two months imprisonment and a fine of 500 francs, for publishing a speech delivered by Robinet at the embassy meeting on April 21st.

Thanks.

Rouher addressed a letter to the electors of Ajaccio, thanking them for their support. He states that the Prince Imperial having already protested his rights from the culpable attack by letter, which was published before the first election, he (Rouher) will not interfere in the forthcoming election, but will merely treat Prince Jerome Napoleon, should he again accept the candidacy, with indifference and forgetfulness.

Spanish Debate on Religious Toleration.

MADRID, May 3.—In Congress to-day, the debate on the new constitution was continued. Alvarez opposed the tolerance clause and declared the monarch was lost if the religious unit was not maintained. Corbello in reply, pointed out that Spain possessed colonies in America, Africa and Asia, and had relations with the whole world. It would be impossible for her to keep these colonies and maintain their relations, if the government adopted the irreconcilable ultramontane attitude.

Winslow.

LONDON, May 3.—An application was made at Chambers to-day for the release of Winslow, by solicitor Woultner, but was resisted by the officers of the Crown and was denied. Winslow will be held 10 days longer, waiting the formal reply from Washington to the latest English note. The application will be renewed on the 13th inst.

MONTREAL, May 2.—Because of the decision in the Winslow case in England, counsel for Worms, who was lately delivered to the United States from Canada, is attempting to secure Worms' return.

New York Greenback Convention.

NEW YORK, May 3.—The Democratic greenback State convention that met to-day, resolved that the Helden delegates don't represent the Democracy of New York; also, one favoring a Western man and the Western platform, and begging Congress not to adjourn till it passes a repeal of the specie resumption act.

Deep Sea Cable Communications Interrupted.

NEW YORK, May 3.—The telegraphs between Nova Scotia and New Foundland are broken, and cable communication, except by the direct cable, is suspended.

CURE FOR TOOTHACHE.—Dr. Dyce Buckworth, an English physician, contributes a short memorandum on this subject. He was called on lately to treat a case of very severe toothache, and tried various ordinary remedies, including chloroform and carbolic acid, without any benefit to the patient. He then remembered having read that the pain might be relieved by holding in the mouth a solution of bicarbonate of soda. He gave the patient half a drachm in an ounce of water, and to his astonishment the pain ceased immediately, and complete relief was secured. He thinks that as the remedy is so simple, and the disease so distressing and often intractable this treatment may be worthy of notice and imitation.

The demand for unpledged and independent delegations to the national conventions grows louder every day. The newspapers are full of urgent appeals for the people to take the matter in hand, and see to it that good men are chosen for delegates, and that they go unhampered by instructions. "We must have the best men in the party nominated at Cincinnati," say the Republicans, "or we shall be defeated in November. To nominate the best men we must keep the wire pullers out of the convention so far as possible." This is much easier said than done, but that it can be done no one doubts. The only condition is that honest men get alarmed enough to go to work and manage the thing themselves.—N. Y. Tribune.

There is a six-year old boy on the Heights who knows all the Psalms by heart, but when he crawls up on his father's knees, and says to him: "Come now, pa, tell me all about this good man David," the old man drops him, and skips out the room as lively as if he had been subpœnaed to testify in a scandal case.—Brooklyn Argus.

500 Miles Walking Match.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—O'Leary and Schmehl, pedestrians, signed articles this evening for a walking match of six days duration, the contestant making the greatest distance within that time to take the money. The match is for $2,000 a side and $500 forfeit. It will probably come off at the Pavilion, beginning May 15th.

Fire.

SAN JOSE, May 2.—Shortly after 4 o'clock A. M., Faulkner's carriage factory, corner of St. Mary's and Santa Clara streets, was discovered to be on fire. Before the alarm was sounded, the building was at the entire mercy of the flames and the firemen devoted their energies to saving the surrounding property. The fire caught Faulkner's residence adjoining, and it was soon enveloped in flames, and both, with their contents, were entirely destroyed. The factory was the largest workshop of the kind in the valley and contained a very large stock of fine buggies, spring wagon's, etc., and the street cars that were being furnished for the new street railroad. The estimated loss on the factory is $23,000, and the dwelling house $2,000. There was a total insurance on the building and contents of $10,500. This establishment was burnt down once before about a year ago and everything indicated that it was the work of an incendiary. This time it was credited to the same cause; two large dogs belonging to the place being found poisoned in the factory yard. The supposed guilty party is being watched.

Meeting of an Anti-Coolie Club.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3.—The South San Francisco anti-Coolie club, at a meeting last night, endorsed the action of the people of Antioch in getting rid of the Chinese question, and some of the speakers advocated a similar course in the city. A significant resolution was passed, admitting the boys of the ward to meetings, on the ground that they could be of great service in working out the desired end.

The Young Men's Universal Reform club held a meeting last evening in Hibernia hall. Communications from the Eleventh ward anti-Chinese club, the Truckee Caucasian league and the anti-Chinese club of Sutter Creek, reporting organization and their desire to co[illegible] with the club were read. The secretary stated he had received a letter from Santa Rosa, stating that a club had been organised under the name of the City of Sonoma and proposing to admit all anti-Chinese clubs into the order. Samuel Brannan addressed the meeting, advocating similar measures to those used by the people of Antioch. Violence, he said, must be used, and was justifiable when used judiciously, and if the Federal government would take no active measures, the people must take the matter in their own hands. Another speaker said he had heard it stated on good authority that the insurance companies were intending to cancel all policies on factories where Chinese labor is employed, and also on all buildings within one block of Chinatown.

The report of the proceedings at Antioch was read, and a vote taken on the question "Were the people of Antioch justified in the measures they used in expelling the Chinese?" The result was a forcible and unanimous "Yes."

Mr. Horsford made a violent speech, advocating marching in armed bodies through the streets, and cleaning out the Chinese summarily.

A committee was then appointed to wait upon all parties employing Chinese, and request the immediate discharge of all such and the substitution of white men.

The intent and policy of the Gershon Society was explained by David Wormsby, of Santa Rosa, marshal of the society. Every man who joins is obliged to take the iron-clad oath binding himself to employ no Chinese in any capacity.

The sergeant at-arms of the Reform Club had received a telegram from New York, saying that 2,000 stand of arms can be delivered here at ten days' notice at $5 50 per musket.

Anti-Chinese Legislative Committee.

The Senate committee to investigate the Chinese question is now sitting in Sacramento. Yesterday C. P. O'Neil, a policeman, testified to having been a witness of a sale of a Chinese woman for $450. The woman soon after suicided, not liking the man to whom she was sold. He also stated he had been informed by the Chinese that they attend the mission schools solely to learn English and laughed at the idea of becoming Christians.

Ah Dan, the Chinese Interpreter, testified that two Chinese interpreters had been killed in Sacramento for their services in court convictions, and that a reward was outstanding for his life. He had seen similar notices posted in San Francisco. Such notices contain an agreement to employ counsel to defend the murderer, if arrested; to recompense him, if imprisoned, and send money to his relatives in China, if executed. His testimony concerning the Chinese companies is similar to that heretofore published.

Chas. Jones, district attorney of Sacramento, gave his experience as to how Chinese conduct felonies, abduct females, etc., the testimony being in the main similar to the evidence before the commission, when sitting in San Francisco.

The presidents of the Chinese companies reported finally to the mayor, through their agent, to-day, that the Chinese, refuse to do anything with their sick, who are inmates of the pest house. It is very likely that thirty odd Mongolian patients, with the exception of the lepers, will be turned out to shift for themselves.

Drowned at Oakland.

A little girl, name unknown, fell off the wharf to-day and was drowned.

C. P. R. R. Co. vs. A. A. Cohen.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3.—In the case of the Central Pacific R. R. Co., against A. A. Cohen, the commissioner of the district court has been engaged for a day or two in taking the testimony of W. E. Brown, former secretary of the Contract and Finance Company, concerning the relations between that company and the Central Pacific. Brown showed a somewhat remarkable failure of memory when placed on the stand, being unable for a long time to remember the names of the members of the Contract and Finance Company. It was finally ascertained to have been composed of Leland Stanford, C. P. Huntington, Mark Hopkins, Chas. Crocker and E. B. Crocker. It was also drawn out in the course of the examination that the company received from the directors of C. P. R. R. Co., stock of that company in payment for work done by the Contract and Finance Co., under contract with the railroad company to the amount of about $54,000,000 which was subsequently divided among the members of the Contract and Finance Co., that the New York value was agreed upon at which the stock should be received; but it was issued at the rate of so many shares per mile. It also appeared that Mr. Brown had been secretary of the Contract and Finance Company from its organization until recently, when his place was taken by Woodruff, alias Miller, the defaulter.

Warning to European Financiers.

J. R. Robinson, Anthony Ezl and Anthony Coole, stock holders of the Central Pacific Railroad, have drawn up a memorial addressed to the stock exchanges and bourses of New York, London and European financial centers, stating in effect, that learning that the bonds of the Southern Pacific Railroad are to be placed on these markets, they warn operators that the Central and Southern Pacific Railroad Companies are in reality one and the same corporation; that the Southern Pacific has been built by funds belonging to the Central, and that the issuance of the bonds of the Southern Pacific was unauthorized and illegal, and that they propose to bring suit in the courts of this State to have such bonds declared illegal and invalid. The memorial will be forwarded by mail to the several exchanges.

Spalding Released from Confinement.

In reply to Admiral Rodgers' request to be allowed to release Paymaster Spalding from confinement, Secretary Robeson has directed Admiral Rogers to use his discretion in the matter. Admiral Rogers therefore informed Spalding that he was at liberty to go at all times from his residence until the conclusion of the trial, it being understood he would report at every meeting of the court.

NEVADA.

PIOCHE, Nev., May 2.—About 3 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in an unoccupied building on the east side of Lacour street. Owing to the highly inflammable character of the buildings in the vicinity, the fire spread in other directions until whole blocks from Staple's furniture store to B[illegible] Buck block were in flames. The fire communicated to the west side of Main street, destroying all the buildings between Beapro block and Hughes blacksmith shop, about 25 buildings being destroyed, with the exception of the Daily Journal office and Mrs. Hickory's millinery establishment. The houses destroyed were residences. Had the fire jumped to the west side of Lacour, or the east side of Main, the business portion of the town would have been destroyed, and in fact the destruction of the whole place threatened; but there being little or no wind at the time, and by the united efforts of the fire department and citizens the fire was confined to the limits named, although the great heat fired buildings on the west side of Lacour street. They present a very dilapidated appearance this morning, Lacour street, from Judge Reaves' residence to Lynch's block, especially, the window frames being all broken and the house fronts completely charred. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. Loss not known yet.

One hundred years ago wedding tours were not fashionable.

One hundred years ago farmers did not cut their legs off with mowing machines.

One hundred years ago our mothers did not worry over disordered sewing machines.

One hundred years ago horses which could trot a mile in 2:14 were somewhat scarce.

One hundred years ago it took several days to procure a divorce and find a congenial spirit.

One hundred years ago there were no disputes about the impoliteness of street car drivers.

One hundred years ago "crooked" whisky was not known. Our forefathers took theirs straight.

One hundred years ago kerosene lamps did not explode and assist women to shuffle off their coil.

HUMOROUS.

Texas papers are holding up their hands in holy horror over a much-married chap who proves to have wives in no less than ten different cities. The in-ten-city of that fellow's affections fully justifies their exclamations.

A prominent clergyman of Brooklyn recently, while taking one of a course of boxing lessons for exercise, received what the boys call "a jolly black eye." On Sunday he chose his text from Timothy, 5th chapter, 7th verse: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course."

The grasshopper blossoms sweetly on the edge of the Minnesota snowdrift. He has already got so he can sit on his elbow and lay a pint of eggs in one forenoon; And while he lays he looks solemn and thoughtful, as if he wasn't doing anything, and his mind was fixed on the sweet reminiscences of his native clime.

Mr. Gladstone, the distinguished English statesman, said, in a recent speech, that hand labor is better paid in England than head labor. Same thing over here, William. A prize-fighter will make more money pounding his fellow-men black and blue, than a goat can earn by butting them clear across the street five or six times a day.

THE LITTLE PEOPLE.

Little Harry, five years old, was called to see the new baby. After a moment's contemplation, he turned to his expectant papa with: "We didn't need that."

First boy—"I say, Jimmy, there's no water, it's frozen over everywhere." Second boy—"Bully, maybe we won't have to wash ourselves till the middle of spring."

"What is a conscience?" asked a schoolmaster of his class. "An inward monitor," replied a bright little fellow. "And what's a monitor?" "One of the Ironclads."

The owner of a pair of bright eyes assures us that the prettiest compliment she ever received came from a child of four years. The little fellow, after looking intently at her for a moment, inquired naively, "Are your eyes new ones?"

HIGH CRIMES AND MISDEMEANORS.—One of the Democratic committees has at last discovered a full-fledged sensation. Being in hot pursuit of Secretary Robeson, it called for certain telegrams and obtained, among others, one in cipher, which was regarded as very suspicious, from the number of arbitrary words which it appeared to contain. A key and an explanation was insisted upon, when the following terrible case of official corruption, clearly high crimes and misdemeanor, came to light:

CAMDEN, N. J.—To Secretary Robeson, Washington, D. C.: The baby is troubled with teething and weaning at this time. The doctor thinks it may be dangerous. He advises the employment of a wet nurse, if a sound and healthy one can be found. (Signed) MARY.

PERSONAL APPEARANCE OF DOM PEDRO.—Dom Pedro is about six feet tall, with gray whiskers and hair. His head is slightly bald. He looks and talks like a German. He was dressed in plain black on yesterday, without an ornament except a gold watch chain. His imperial spouse is much shorter and is what may be called "dumpy." She also has German features. The suite of the Emperor and Empress numbers nine persons exclusive of six servants.—Chicago Tribune.

SENATOR SARGENT'S SPEECH UPON CHINESE IMMIGRATION.

This speech comes at a fit moment. The public mind is astir upon this question. There is a deep ferment of feeling among the people, almost rising to passion against the Chinese, who have come. There is a trembling anxiety which mingles with fear about those who will come to our shores, and who will thread their way into all the avenues of industry, supplanting common laborers and rivaling the skilled artisan at his own trade. There is a fear of those who will throng the dens of vice and poison the air with their filth and infect society with the leprosy of their lusts. It is right for statesmen to discuss such a question. It does not lower their dignity (in the [illegible] view) to talk about the Chinese or Indian as an inferior race, to be suppressed in some way, for the rule of the superior white race, as [illegible] the discussion was of this sort in the [illegible] national councils about what they called the inferior negro race. We must suppose that Mr. Sargent, standing in his place in the Senate on the 1st of May, was thoroughly [illegible] in his care for the [illegible] of California and of these United States, and in his portrayal of their dangers from the continued [illegible] of this [illegible] race. The warp and woof of his speech are made up of the [illegible] to our industries and the perils to our [illegible]. His [illegible] tion of the problem is the same that the Chinese adopted [illegible] ago [illegible] the [illegible] Tartars. They built a wall of brick and stone 1,500 miles along and high [illegible] to keep them from jumping over. They set it thick with towers, guarded by [illegible] and felt secure. But the [illegible] got in [illegible] and became masters of the country, took the Chinese name [illegible] as the Teutonic and Gothic [illegible] took the name of Romans when they had conquered Italy and Rome, and as the Saxons and Normans took the name of Englishmen when they had become the masters [illegible] of the mere [illegible] of Briton.

Mr. Sargent [illegible] to build a wall along our coast made of [illegible] stipulations and Congressional laws [illegible] to [illegible] out these same [illegible] invaders. With sad face he recites the [illegible] of Calcutta, the [illegible] who [illegible], but he does not tell us how it applies. The numerous facts, which he has so carefully collected shed light upon the [illegible] question. He informs us that "the number of Chinese on the Pacific [illegible] is 150,000, of which number 100,000 are in California, 30,000 [illegible] in San F[illegible] alone, and in all this number there are not 100 families." He [illegible] to Donovan's Alley, in New York City, [illegible] by the Chinamen, a place for immoral and degrading exhibitions. He says Chinamen will work for one dollar per day and monopolize the market, while the white laborer must emigrate or starve; that the Chinaman is a competitor [illegible] skilled and unskilled. He [illegible] that the flood of Chinamen is not confined to the Pacific [illegible] but they follow the lines of travel [illegible] giving no [illegible] to get out of their way by [illegible] their [illegible] in North America, [illegible] the [illegible] of the employer or [illegible] from the [illegible]. He [illegible] in California, [illegible] at low [illegible] white labor [illegible], and as soon as the [illegible] is taught, they set up for [illegible] their [illegible] and [illegible] getting [illegible] into their own hands. All this [illegible] injure to labor, skilled and unskilled he says [illegible], and quickly too by this [illegible].

Mr. Sargent [illegible] with American intelligence and energy and [illegible] in this [illegible]: "The [illegible] advantage gained by [illegible] to the [illegible] slave [illegible] who [illegible] his Coolie [illegible]." He [illegible] the slavement of labor in the [illegible] of a few Chinese monopolists, who contract with and hold the Chinese laborers in a bond stronger than the old [illegible] slavery. He refers to [illegible] report to the State Department, April 25, 1871, to show the slavery of the immigrants, the decoy of them on board ships by all sorts of tricks, [illegible] and [illegible] promises by men-dealers, connived at by the Chinese local authorities. He shows that the [illegible] Coolie is overawed into [illegible] a contract [illegible] the [illegible] surroundings as gives it the [illegible] of character [illegible] elsewhere known. From that moment he is the [illegible] tool of the [illegible] dealer, wherever he may go. He quotes [illegible] the New York [illegible], showing [illegible] Coolie sells himself into slavery for the price of his [illegible] at an exorbitant [illegible] and [illegible] his family at home. When the [illegible] is [illegible] the family is [illegible] off, [illegible] with [illegible] these [illegible] contracts, which no law in America or China, nor any [illegible], will [illegible]. Mr. Sargent unwittingly [illegible] the remedy in the [illegible] case of the [illegible] in Chief Justice Smale's court, Hongkong. He had been arraigned for the murder of the captain and crew of the [illegible] Coolie ship, but he was [illegible] by the court on the ground that he had the natural right to [illegible] his liberty, even by taking the lives of those who held him in slavery.

That principle [illegible] that every man has the right to [illegible] his will [illegible] fraudulent contract by which the monopolist [illegible] or holds a lien on his family. [illegible] the bodies and souls of men and [illegible] defiance of law on both [illegible] of the Pacific, and is violation of the terms [illegible]. The attempt to enforce it on any poor laborer for a day is an act worse than Shylock's. It is a case for the U. S. attorneys on ship and for district attorneys on shore. It is a subject within the [illegible] of those laws that protect all our [illegible] and our homes. Let the coolie know that he is a free man, that his bond is a fraud, that the hundreds and thousands who come under such contracts are absolved as soon as they step foot on shore, and you will stop contractors from this vile traffic. You will arrest the flood of Chinese immigrants. Apply the law that protects the natural rights of men to the Chinamen [illegible] his monopolist [illegible], and you will break up this [illegible] of flooding our shores with poor laborers. Apply the same law to those who import the women for vile purposes and let the women know that they are free from the bond that was made by fraud, and enforced by tyranny, and these wretches will cease to import the women. Contractors and shippers will not engage in a business that won't pay. Break up the contracts that unjustly hold these poor people. Give them a taste of personal freedom. Let them know that they can go and come as they choose, that they can make their own bargains and receive their own money for their labor, and be individually free men and women, and they will cease to herd together like swine. They will scatter instead of banding together into mobs. There will come from China a better class with their families.

The laborers will slowly sift in as they are wanted, but not in alarming crowds. Their vices will diminish and their virtues will increase. The secret of this great evil is the vicious, fraudulent contract system. Its solution is the application of the first element in our national Bill of Rights to the Chinamen as we now apply it to the negro,—we have no trouble with his labor—and as we ought to apply it to the Indian in order to solve his problem.

Treat every man as endowed with inalienable rights under law. Let the law defend him, and not wait for the coolie to take the law into his own hands and defend himself by murdering captain and crew to save himself. Do this, attorneys and lawyers, and courts and we shall have no more occasions for appeals to Congress for new legislation and new treaties to protect us from this inferior race who so quickly become our masters,—not by their own force, but by the cruel fraud and sharp practice of their monopolist contractors. Apply Father Stewart's fitting words, written once [illegible] slavery, to this sort of slavery:

> The rights of man are mighty things;
> They rise above [illegible] towers;
> They triumph o'er all [illegible] laws,
> And tread in dust [illegible] power.

By such process of action we shall get rid of this national q[illegible] which has grown complicated and vexing, and we shall glide more [illegible] into the new century of the Republic.

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 4, 1876.

THE CONVENTION AND ITS WORK.

There is cause for congratulation in the proceedings of the Republican State Convention, which met yesterday, a report of which appears elsewhere in this paper. It was plain from the moment the delegates assembled that the methods which have produced dissatisfaction heretofore were to be discarded and an honest effort made to deserve the support of the people of the State. Of the candidates we have only time to say they are acceptable, leaving more particular remarks to the future.

The Convention omitted the ordinary resolutions endorsing the Administration. The resolution declaring for Blaine, was received with such enthusiasm as settles the case against the Mortons and Conklings so far as Oregon is concerned. The third term in its direct or indirect form finds no comfort among Oregon Republicans.

It is cause of congratulation that the Republican party in this State have arrived at the conclusion that it is better policy to act in accordance with the traditional sentiments of the party than to wallow in the mire of corrupt bargains in the interest of a few politicians. In union there is strength, and it will be well never again to forget that there is union only in fair dealing and adherence to principle. It is more cause of congratulation that the party is united on principle than that it is united. The Republicans are happy and the ring, we are happy to say, submit with becoming grace.

SPONTANEOUS COMBUSTION.

Spontaneous combustion is the ignition of inflammable bodies without the application of fire, and without obvious cause of increase of temperature. Occurrences of this sort, formerly very mysterious, are now explained by the well understood liability of certain bodies to undergo chemical changes which develop sufficient heat to set them on fire. Oils are particularly disposed to oxydise when exposed to light and air. They then absorb oxygen and give out carbonic acid and hydrogen. If the process goes on rapidly, as it universally does when the oil is diffused through light inflammable substances, such as cotton, tow, waste used for lubricating machinery, etc., the heat may be sufficient to set these on fire. This is the most frequent cause of spontaneous combustion. By being piled together the danger is increased by the accumulation of heat. The above taken from the American Cyclopedia explains the nature of spontaneous combustion, which is said to have been the cause of the fire which destroyed the [illegible] Woolen Mills yesterday, and clearly sets forth the danger of allowing greasy rags to accumulate, as is often done, in out of the way corners. There are many cases on record of houses and even lives destroyed by fires which started with spontaneous combustion of a parcel of old greasy rags, that had been carelessly thrown in the corner of a closet and allowed to remain undisturbed. It frequently is the case that such closets are built alongside of a chimney, the heat from which makes the combustion of the old [illegible] of oily rags and paper more certain and speedy. A great many of the fires reported to have been started by unknown causes are due to this. Hence all householders should be careful to remove all such accumulations of dangerous matter.

NEW YORK LOSING THE GRAIN TRADE.

For some time during the past twelve years a compact existed between the great railways from the West to the Atlantic coast by which the rates of freight to be charged by each was fixed. This compact has recently been broken by Mr. Vanderbilt, for the reason that under its provisions the more southern lines were getting the bulk of freights. From statistics published in the Chicago Tribune it will appear that from January 1 to April 15 more than 11,500,000 bushels of grain had been received in Philadelphia and Baltimore, and during the same period only 3,000,000 had been brought to New York. Within a week 30,000 bushels of grain have been sent to Philadelphia and Baltimore, and only 4,000 have come here. In 1867, Baltimore shipped 769,664 bushels of corn; last year she shipped 5,577,404 bushels. Her corn trade increased over seven-fold, while that of New York increased about 50 per cent. in seven years. The wheat export of Baltimore rose from 10,760 bushels to 2,975,206 bushels, while that of New York increased from 7,208,370 bushels to 24,722,963 bushels. New York is fast falling behind her rivals in the race, partly on account of the discriminations against her in freights and partly for want of terminal facilities and conveniences for cheap and rapid handling of goods of all kinds.

The committee on foreign affairs having received the letters and papers relating to Gen. Schenck's connection with the Emma mine, which they had been expecting from England, and finding in them some things inconsistent with his verbal testimony, summoned Gen. Schenck to appear before them and give what explanation he could of the inconsistencies. Mr. Park was also summoned. Both appeared at the appointed time. One of the papers, Gen. Schenck's letter of resignation of his directorship in the Emma Mine Company, seemed to have been copied from an original draft drawn up by Park; in fact, Park said it was. Then Gen. Schenck got very mad, his face grew purple and he violently insisted that he himself wrote the letter of resignation; that nobody helped him and that Park's statement about it was absolutely false. Such plump denial would generally be accepted as true; but the circumstances of this particular case are such that it is not so accepted, and Gen. Schenck is more than suspected of practicing a ruse of his favorite game and to be trying to bluff.

People who sit at their front windows and stare at their neighbors from morning till night will, perhaps, not be deterred by the fact that a South Brooklyn woman in this line of business had her nose frozen fast to the window pane one day last week, and was subsequently obliged to have the tip of it amputated. Nevertheless, the affair cast the radiance of a profound joy over the entire neighborhood.

DEMOCRATIC SCHEMES.

A great deal of dissatisfaction has been expressed on account of the dilatoriness of the Democratic majority in Congress in getting through with the appropriation bills. It has been charged that the Democratic leaders were both stupid and inexperienced; but it now begins to be suspected that the delay complained of is a shrewd and deep laid scheme. The N. Y. Times' correspondent, alluding to this, says:

> It is not all due to stupidity and inexperience. One of the suggestions is that the Democrats mean to leave as short a time as possible between the passage of the bills in the House and the close of the fiscal year on the 30th of June. The Senate would thus be compelled to accept the bills as sent from the House, or allow the departments to stop for want of funds. There is another reason for delay still more probable. All the stories touching any man who may be a possible candidate for the Presidency are carefully stored up by the Democratic leaders in their private pigeon holes, and the advice of those who attempt to control is that nothing against any one who is likely to be nominated at Cincinnati, should be investigated at present. The meaning of the slow progress in the House then seems most likely to be that a large amount of work is to remain undone after the nomination of the Republican candidate, in order that Congress may have an excuse to remain in Washington a month or two investigating the nominee. This is a very pleasant prospect, and it suggests to the gentlemen who desire to be President a little self-examination and the inquiry, in a strictly personal and private manner, whether they could afford to be investigated after having received the nomination. If any of the candidates feel a little nervous on this subject they would do well to take action of some sort between now and the middle of June to place themselves beyond the reach of the House, the simplest method being to withdraw entirely from the contest. There can be very little doubt that the House intends to find out what sort of man the Republican candidate is, and a good many scandals, if nothing worse, have been filed and indexed for future reference.

The following is from the "Comte de Paris' History of the Civil War in America," published by J. H. Coates & Co., Philadelphia: A curious circumstance mentioned in the official accounts of the battle of Gettysburg, which was fought upon ground comparatively little wooded, shows to what extent, on both sides, the excitement of the conflict caused the loss of self-possession among soldiers who had been accustomed for some time to handling their arms. Among twenty-four thousand loaded muskets picked up at random on the field of battle, one-fourth only were properly loaded; twelve thousand contained each a double charge, and the other fourth from three to ten charges; in some, there were six balls to a single charge of powder; others contained six cartridges, one on the top of the other, without having been opened; a few more, twenty-three complete charges regularly inserted; finally, in the barrel of a single musket there were found confusedly jumbled together twenty-two balls, sixty-two buck-shot, with a proportionate quantity of powder. These souvenirs of the battle admirably depict the confusion; we can easily imagine the soldier stopping to load his gun while his companions are advancing, and instead of stepping to the front and firing off his piece, renewing the operation of loading until the weapon becomes a useless instrument in his hands; but we should not severely criticise the American soldier on this account, for it appears that an examination of the battlefields of the Crimea gave similar results.

HOW MUCH WORK A HORSE CAN DO.—At a meeting of the British Association at Dublin, Mr. Carlos Bianconi, of Clonmel, read a letter relative to his extensive car establishment, after which a gentleman stated that at Pickford's, the great English carriers, they could not work a horse more than ten miles a day, and wished to hear Bianconi's opinion on the subject. Mr. B. stated that he found by experience that he could better work a horse eight miles a day for six days in the week than six miles a day for seven days. By not working on Sunday he effected a saving of 12 per cent. Mr. Bianconi's opinion on this point is of the highest importance, for he has 900 horses, working 37 conveyances, which daily travel 4,244 miles. It is also the result of 44 years' experience.

A bucolic Michigan lady sends this note to the Chicago Tribune: "Are the ball-room dresses illustrated in fashion-papers correct representations of the same as worn by ladies attending balls, &c., in our large cities? If so, how do those not endowed by kind nature with the correct form, you know, manage to keep up their end of the fashion lever? Do they have 'busts' made to order, painted, grooved and warranted to fit? And why is it (if a fact) that respectable ladies, while attending balls, parties, &c., are licensed to exhibit themselves there half naked, when, if they should present themselves in the same shape in ordinary society, they would be classed among the demi-monde? I ask for information, as I do not move in the 'higher circles,' and am not posted."

Agent for Mrs. Moore's Great
Scientific Hair Reproducer,

WOULD INFORM THE PUBLIC THAT SHE has opened parlors for the treatment of Ladies and Gentlemen for the cure of Baldness in all its stages, and a few treatments will convince the most skeptical that this is no exaggeration. Weak, decaying and falling hair made strong, healthy and vigorous. Hair guaranteed in all cases where directions are faithfully followed. No mineral or damaging substances used or disagreeable methods. The treatment is pleasant and soothing, bringing the scalp rapidly into a natural, healthful tone, and furnishing the proper elements to the bulbs and hair, which is produced in a surprisingly short space of time.

Ladies and gentlemen desiring treatment please call at her Parlors and the most satisfactory proofs will be furnished. Photographs of prominent men taken before and after treatment, can be seen at her rooms. Visitors always welcome. Preparations sent to all parts of Oregon and Washington.

Room 16, First National Bank Building.

This is to certify that I can vouch for the efficacy attributed to Mrs. Moore's Hair Restorative.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

Forenoon Session.

Pursuant to the call issued by the Republican State Central Committee, the delegates composing the Republican State Convention met yesterday morning at Turn Halle, at 11 o'clock.

At the hour designated, the convention was called to order by J. C. Moreland, Esq., Secretary of the State Central Committee, in the absence of the chairman, L. S. Scott.

Briefly stating the object for which the convention was called, Mr. Moreland said the first step toward organization, would be the selection of a temporary chairman.

The name of A. R. Burbank, of Yamhill, was placed in nomination for chairman, and there being no opposing candidate, his election was unanimous.

Mr. Burbank on assuming the chair proceeded to return his thanks to the convention for the honor it had conferred in chosing him to preside over the deliberations of such a body of honest and intelligent men. Only a few years ago, he said, the Republican party in Oregon was divided, and discord pervaded its ranks. Now the party was again united, and he hoped in perfect harmony. In view of this satisfactory condition of the party, he thought Republican hearts ought to feel encouraged to go forward with hope and confidence in the ultimate triumph of the ticket. Harmony ought to characterize the deliberations of the convention, and a spirit of good feeling prevail among the delegates assembled. Bygones should be bygones, past differences forgotten, and the two wings of the party, heretofore divided and at variance one with the other, ought to enter into the coming political campaign with one purpose—to carry the State. To accomplish this object it would be necessary to place in the field good, honest and capable men. The convention should select men to bear the banner in whose integrity, competency and patriotism the Republican party reposed entire confidence. With such men to head the ticket, and with harmony and concert of action he had no doubt but what the party will be triumphant at the coming election. Again he would urge upon the convention the value and importance to the success of the party, of harmony in its deliberations. For one he felt rejoiced that the party was again united, and that so many delegates were present. We have the strength to succeed, let us have unity.

During his brief remarks, Mr. Burbank was frequently applauded.

On motion of W. C. Johnson, of Clackamas, C. A. Dolph was placed in nomination for temporary secretary. Before the motion was put Mr. Dolph declined, and withdrew his name.

On motion, Joseph Simon, of Multnomah, was placed in nomination for secretary, and unanimously elected.

Mr. Buck, of Columbia county, moved that a committee of five persons be appointed by the chair on credentials.

This motion provoked some discussion, but it finally prevailed, whereupon the chairman appointed the following persons: F. S. Burk, of Columbia; C. A. Dolph, of Multnomah; A. A. McCully, Marion; D. M. Thompson, Linn; J. C. Tolman, Jackson.

A motion was made that the committee on credentials be instructed to report to the convention at 2 o'clock P. M. Odell, of Lane, moved to amend by inserting 1 o'clock, and after some discussion the amendment prevailed.

F. A. Chenoweth, of Benton, moved that a committee of six be appointed by the chair on permanent organization and order of business.

The motion was objected to by several delegates on the ground that no further action should be taken by the convention until the committee on credentials had presented their report. Until that was done, it could not be determined who were delegates and entitled to vote. Some discussion ensued, but the motion was at length put and carried.

The chairman then announced the following names to constitute the committee on permanent organization and order of business: F. A. Chenoweth, of Benton; W. H. Byars, Douglass; W. D. Watts, Wasco; J. J. Henderson, Yamhill; Wm. Barlow, Clackamas; S. Hughes, Washington.

On motion of Mr. Odell, the convention took a recess until 1 o'clock P. M.

Afternoon Session.

Your committee report that Curry county is entitled to two delegates and is unrepresented, and would recommend that Wm. P. Wright, delegate from Coos county, be authorized to cast the vote of Curry county in this convention.

The committee also return herewith a communication from the Republican Convention of Columbia county, and recommend that A. H. Blakesley be allowed a seat in this convention as an additional delegate from such county.

Respectfully submitted,

F. S. BUCK, Chairman.

The communication referred to in the report certified that at the election, upon which the apportionment in the call for this convention was made, many Republicans failed to vote, and that an apportionment made on the full number of Republicans in the county would give Columbia county two delegates. The county convention had therefore elected two delegates, and requested the State convention to give Mr. Blakesley a seat. The report was adopted.

The report was amended by consent in some unimportant particulars and adopted.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

The committee on order of business and permanent organization submitted their report as follows:

To the State Republican Convention: We, your committee, appointed upon order of business ... to ... report the following:

1st. The election of permanent officers of the convention.

2d. The appointment of a committee of one from each county on platform.

3d. Nomination of a candidate for member of Congress.

4th. The nomination of three candidates for presidential electors.

5th. The election of six delegates to the national convention, one from each judicial district and one for the State at large.

6th. Nomination of district officers.

7th. Election of a State central committee.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

F. A. CHENOWETH, Chairman.

The report was adopted.

OFFICERS OF THE CONVENTION.

On motion, Hon. W. Cary Johnson, of Clackamas county, was elected president of the convention. He took the chair saying he thanked the convention for the honor of being selected to preside over its deliberations, and without making a speech, he would with the assistance of the delegates, at once proceed with the prosecution of the work of the convention so auspiciously begun. The choice of a permanent secretary of the convention being in order, Mr. Joseph Simon, of Multnomah, was elected.

COMMITTEE ON PLATFORM.

Pursuant to the order of business adopted, the following delegates were appointed as a committee on platform: Baker county, R. Alexander; Benton, W. H. Higby; Clackamas, Wm. Barlow; Clatsop, John Badollet; Columbia, F. S. Buck; Coos, W. B. Wright; Curry, W. B. Wright; Douglas, A. Myers; Grant, C. N. Thornbury; Jackson, J. C. Tolman; Lake, O. C. Applegate; Lane, W. H. Odell; Linn, O. G. Tompkins; Marion, Jos. Engle; Multnomah, W. H. Watkins; Polk, J. L. Collins; Tillamook, B. A. Bailey; Union, Geo. Wright; Umatilla, J. C. Disosway; Wasco, J. C. Cartwright; Washington, Samuel Hughes; Yamhill, W. S. Powell.

On motion, the convention took a recess of one hour to give the committee on platform time to prepare their report.

THE PLATFORM.

The convention being again called to order, the committee on platform submitted for the consideration of the convention the following resolutions:

The Republican party of Oregon, in convention assembled, makes this declaration of its principles and policy:

Resolved, That in this Centennial year of American Independence we again affirm our devotion to those fundamental principles upon which the republic and the Republican party were founded. Among these are—

1. Unswerving fidelity to the constitution and the perpetuity of the Union.

2. The preservation of the liberties and equal rights of all citizens throughout the nation, and the impartial administration of the laws in every part of the country, for the protection and enforcement of public and private rights and the punishment of violence and crime.

3. Pure and economical administration of every department of the government, State and national, and we pledge the support of the Republican party to all measures honestly proposed and wisely designed to promote the moral and material prosperity of the people.

4. That a well-instructed people alone can be permanently free, it is therefore essential that the public school system shall be maintained in order that every child may receive such education as will fit him for useful citizenship, and we are unalterably opposed to any division of public school money for any purpose whatever.

5. That while we are in favor of a revenue for the support of the general government by duties upon imports, sound policy requires such adjustment of those imposts as to encourage the development of the industrial interests of the whole country, and we commend that policy of national exchange which secures to the working men liberal wages, to agriculture remunerative prices, to mechanics and manufacturers an adequate reward for their skill, labor and enterprise, and to the nation commercial prosperity and independence.

6. That the best interests of all citizens of every condition and pursuit imperatively demand the speediest return to a specie basis of values and currency, and we hail with gratification the act of a Republican Congress definitely providing for that end.

7. That we are in favor of untiring prosecution and punishment of public fraud and crime, straw-bidding and peculation in office, wherever existing, and we repeat the injunction, "Let no guilty man escape."

8. We demand that our national candidates shall be men of tried integrity, who will carry out this policy of reform, and preserve inviolate the great results of the war.

9. We arraign the present State administration and its supporters as corrupt and profligate. They have robbed the common school fund; they have been guilty of partisan legislation; they have squandered our patrimony in lands, and heaped upon us a debt of over $300,000 in direct violation of the constitution.

C. A. Dolph of Multnomah, moved that the platform as reported by the committee be adopted as a whole. The motion was carried and the platform declared adopted.

On motion of Burbank of Yamhill, Jas. Chambers of Benton, was chosen assistant secretary.

Mr. Humphreys moved that D. M. Thompson of Linn county, be authorized to cast the vote of John Redman, a delegate from that county who was absent; carried.

NOMINATION FOR CONGRESSMAN.

Mr. Burk, of Yamhill, moved that in the selection of candidates, the vote be by ballot and that a majority of the votes cast be requisite to a choice. Carried.

It was moved and carried that the chair appoint tellers, and C. A. Ball, F. M. Alford and O. C. Applegate were appointed.

Messrs. Bailey and Sullivan, delegates from Tillamook, appeared and took their seats,—their proxies retiring.

The convention then proceeded to the selection of a candidate for member of the XLVth Congress.

The names of Richard Williams, A. C. Gibbs and H. Y. Thompson, of Multnomah county, and of J. W. Watts, of Yamhill, were presented.

On the first ballot. Hon. R. Williams, of Multnomah county, received 74 votes; 58 being a majority, Mr. Williams was declared the nominee.

On motion of Powell, of Yamhill, the nomination was made unanimous.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

For presidential electors the following gentlemen were presented as candidates: W. H. Odell, L. O. Stearns, L. Hughes, J. C. Cartwright, W. B. Higby, J. W. Watts and John F. Caples.

The first ballot stood: W. H. Odell, 79; J. Watts, 74; J. C. Cartwright, 57; J. F. Caples, 53; L. O. Stearns, 40; W. B. Higby, 21; S. Hughes, 11. Fifty-eight votes being necessary to a choice. W. H. Odell of Lane, and J. W. Watts of Yamhill, were declared the nominees of the convention for electors. There being no choice for the third elector, on motion of Capt. Smith of Wasco, the rule was suspended and J. C. Cartwright was nominated by acclamation.

On motion, the convention took a recess until 8 o'clock P. M., the delegates from the several judicial districts in the meantime to make their selections of candidates for district officers, delegates to the national convention, and members of the State central committee, from the respective districts.

Evening Session.

The convention reassembled at 8 o'clock P. M., Hon. W. C. Johnson, president, in the chair.

The convention then proceeded to the election of delegates to the National Republican Convention.

The first judicial district presented the name of J. C. Tolman as delegate from that district. The convention, on motion, ratified the nomination of Mr. Tolman and he was declared a delegate to the National Convention.

The second district nominated B. C. Van Houten, the third district, J. H. Foster, the fourth district, J. H. David, and the fifth district, H. K. Hines. These gentlemen were elected by the convention.

H. W. Scott and J. B. Montgomery, of Multnomah county, were nominated for delegates at large. The ballot being taken, H. W. Scott received 92 votes, and J. B. Montgomery 22, and Mr. Scott was declared elected delegate at large, and on motion of Higby, of Benton, the election was made unanimous.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED.

Mr. Burbank moved that a committee of three be appointed to wait upon Hon. R. Williams, the nominee for Congress, and invite him before the convention. The motion prevailed, and Burbank, Tolman and Disoseway were appointed.

DISTRICT CANDIDATES.

The delegates from the several judicial districts reported that they had agreed upon nominations for district candidates as follows:

First District—Prosecuting Attorney, C. B. Watson, of Coos.

Second District—Judge, James F. Watson, of Douglas; Prosecuting Attorney, W. B. Higby, of Benton.

Third District—Judge, R. P. Boise, of Polk; Prosecuting Attorney, Geo. H. Burnett, of Yamhill.

Fourth District—Prosecuting Attorney, R. Stott, of Multnomah.

Fifth District—Cartwright, of Wasco, stated that the delegates from this district had con... ... candidate for district judge and had nominated S. B. Eakin for prosecuting attorney.

STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

The delegations from the several counties reported the following names for members of the State Central Committee, and they were elected by the convention: Baker county, J. P. Ross; Benton, F. A. Chenowith; Clackamas, W. C. Johnson; Clatsop, R. R. Spedden; Columbia, T. A. McBride, Coos, W. P. Wright; Curry, M. M. Riley; Douglas, D. Bushey; Grant, J. Muldrick; Jackson, E. Smith; Josephine, Alex. Watts; Lake, O. C. Applegate; Lane, John Kelly; Linn, O. P. Tompkins; Marion, John G. Wright; Multnomah, Geo. A. Steel; Polk, O. G. Shurtleff; Tillamook, W. T. Baxter; Union, W. J. Snodgrass; Umatilla, J. C. Disoseway; Wasco, W. P. Watson; Washington, W. D. Pittenger; Yamhill, J. W. Watts.

On motion, Geo. A. Steel, of Multnomah, was chosen chairman of the committee.

BLAINE ENDORSED.

Capt. John Smith, of Wasco, offered the following resolution, which was adopted, amid great cheering.

Resolved, That the Hon. James G. Blaine, of Maine, is the choice of this convention for President of the United States.

HON. R. WILLIAMS,

Nominee of the convention for Congress was conducted before the convention by the committee appointed to wait upon him, and introduced by the president. Mr. Williams addressed the convention briefly, returning his thanks for the honor of being selected as the standard bearer of the Republican party in the coming campaign. He had appeared before a Republican convention in the same position before, when there was less hopefulness apparent, when the party was divided and its members less enthusiastic than now, but he felt as much responsibility in accepting the nomination now as then. He was thankful that the party which was then divided was now harmonious, and that element which then opposed him was now willing to rally to his support, and he should rely on their support as fully as on that of those who had always been within the pale of the party. The causes which had brought the party together were national. The Democratic members of Congress were spending the people's money and the time of Congress in investigations and hunting up matters to disgrace the nation, instead of legislating for the good of the country, and while he would not cover up, but help to put down and wipe out every fraud which Congress discovered, he thought they had better be devising some plan by which the great debt heaped upon the nation in its effort to make them loyal and honest could be wiped out, than their reckless expenditure of the people's money in trying to make capital for the Democratic party. Again thanking the convention for the honor of the nomination, Mr. Williams retired amid loud and prolonged cheers.

W. B. HIGBY, ESQ.,

Of Benton county, was called for, and taking the platform, made a very able speech, arraigning the Democratic party as a party of retrogression and the enemy of liberty and good government. Mr. Higby is a fluent speaker, and his remarks were listened to with much attention and received with great applause by the large number present.

SPECIAL RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. O. C. Applegate offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the delegates who may be present at the national convention at Cincinnati be authorized to cast the vote or votes of any that may be absent, and that no proxies be allowed to be given to any persons other than to the delegates elected by this convention.

The resolution was adopted.

W. H. Odell, of Lane, offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That we look upon the passage through Congress of what is known as Lane's bill, styled a bill to adjust the claims of owners of lands within the limits of the Klamath Indian reservation in the State of Oregon, as a fraud upon the government and an injury to the people of the State.

W. LAIR HILL,

Editor of the OREGONIAN, being called took the platform in response, and said it was not his intention to make a speech, but in view of the position he had for some time occupied toward the Republican party, the party of his earliest instincts and associations, he thought justice to himself required him to define his position. He was glad to see that the Republican party had made such progress that it could applaud sentiments which a few years ago could not have been uttered in a Republican convention, but which had been to-night expressed by the nominee for Congress. He was especially glad to hear the applause that echoed through the hall when Mr. Williams said the time had passed when a nomination of an unworthy man, or by unworthy means, could secure the votes of intelligent people. He was also glad to see how well the demand for civil service reform had been received. This he said was the remedy without which all other efforts at purification of the public service would be worse than useless. These were the points upon which a large part of the Republican party had felt compelled by a sense of duty to withdraw their support from the organization. He did not propose to eat any dirt, and he did not take back a single proposition he had advanced on these matters, but so long as the party conducted itself with fairness, and with due regard for the right of every member to exercise his individual conscience, they "might count on him." His remarks were well received by the convention.

JOINT SENATOR.

Mr. Chenoweth, of Benton, announced that the delegations from Polk and Benton counties had agreed upon James S. Holman as candidate for Joint Senator from those counties. The convention ratified the nomination.

THE NEW DEAL.

Hon. E. B. Applegate was called for, and made a speech, setting forth the evil results to the country of the caucus system, and advocating the nomination of a candidate for U. S. Senator by this convention. His speech was in his peculiar, humorous and argumentative style, and was listened to with interest.

DR. WATTS,

Candidate for Elector, being called out, said he would not make a speech; he was a Republican, not for office, not for money, but because the principles of the Republican party were right. If he lived the people would hear him at a more appropriate time before the election. The Dr. makes a good speech and his work will be effective in the canvass.

Mr. Burbank moved that three cheers be given for the entire ticket, and that the convention adjourn without day. The cheers were given and the convention adjourned.

The Quality of the Blood.

Upon the quality of the blood depends, in a great measure, the vigor and health of the body. If the blood is wanting in nutritious properties, the muscles are sure to be weak and flabby, the flesh deficient in quantity, the skin sallow and dry, the cheeks hollow, and the eyes lustreless. To improve the quality of the blood, stimulate digestion and assimilation with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Under the influence of this strength-creating cordial the body is efficiently nourished and the flesh grows, in consequence, more abundant, the muscles become more compact, the cheek is tinged with a healthful color, and the eye regains its brightness. The Bitters also free the blood from impurities by stimulating the kidneys and bowels to thoroughly perform their duty of carrying off the refuse of the system, which, if not entirely got rid of, poisons the vital current.

THE GUIDE POST.

Translated from the Alemannic German dialect of John Peter Hebel.

D'ye know the road to the barrel of flour?
At break o' day let down the bars,
And plough your wheat-field hour by hour
Till sundown—yes, till shine of stars.

You peg away the live-long day,
Nor loaf about, nor gape around;
And that's the road to the threshin' floor,
And into the kitchen, I'll be bound!

D'ye know the road where the dollars are?
Follow the red cents here and there;
For if a man leaves them, I guess
He won't find dollars anywhere.

D'ye know the road to Sunday's rest?
Jist don't of week days be afeard;
In field and workshop do y'r best,
And Sunday comes itself, I've heered.

D'ye know what road to honor leads?
And good old age?—a lovely sight!
By way o' temperance, honest deeds,
And tryin' to do y'r duty right.

And when the road forks airy side,
And you're in doubt which one it is,
Stand still and let your conscience guide;
Thank God, it can't lead much amiss!

Go, fearin' God, but lovin' more!
I've tried to be an honest guide.
You find the grave has got a door,
And somethin' for you t'other side.
—Bayard Taylor.

Minutes of the last regular meeting read and approved.

PETITIONS.

From E. J. Jeffery and others, asking that Thirteenth street, from B to D, be opened; referred to the committee on streets and public property.

From the Western Union Telegraph Company, asking permission to extend their line up E street to Fourth. Referred to the committee on streets and public property.

From B. Bequette, who stated that he was owner and patentee of a new and improved kind of flouring mill, and asking the council to donate the petitioner a portion of the levee between Clay and Columbia streets, on which he would erect a mill. The petition was referred to the committee on streets and public property.

From J. A. Strowbridge and others, asking that the council [illegible] Second street from A to Madison to be widened ten feet—five feet on [illegible] allowing owners of property along the street five years in which to move buildings [illegible] to the line [illegible]. Referred to the committee on streets and public property.

REMONSTRANCES.

From A. L. [illegible] and others, remonstrating against the proposed improvement of B street between Twelfth and Thirteenth. Referred to the committee on streets and public property.

From Lloyd Brooks and others, remonstrating against the proposed improvement of Pine street. Referred to the committee on streets and public property.

NEW LICENSE ORDINANCE.

The committee on accounts and current expenses, to whom was referred the matter of imposing and collecting city license from [illegible] milk [illegible], etc., submitted the following report:

To the Honorable the Common Council: Your committee to whom was referred a resolution relative to the recent decision of the Circuit Court as to the right of the city to collect a license from non-residents on a vehicle used by them in peddling milk [illegible] report: That the action of the Council in adopting ordinance No. 1713 entitled "an ordinance to [illegible] and regulate licenses" has been misunderstood, and in respect to section 3 misrepresented, and that the matter may be placed fairly before you, call attention to the following facts: Said ordinance number 1713 as originally presented Oct. 6th, 1875, was merely a compilation of existing ordinances, and made no changes in the rates or classes of business for which a license was required, except as to hotels and hotel runners; that portion of section 3, defining the term peddler and which has been the subject of so much comment reads as follows: Any persons, except persons peddling newspapers, bibles and religious tracts, and farmers or persons peddling the product of their own farms, gardens or milk ranches, who offer to sell at retail or wholesale, goods, wares, merchandise, or other commodities, as traveling from place to place in the city of Portland, shall be regarded as a peddler under this ordinance, and is an exact copy from subdivision 4 of section 9, of ordinance 171, approved Jan. 13th, 1865; and although that section of the ordinance has been revised and amended a number of times, no change has ever been made in the phraseology of the paragraph above quoted. No [illegible] has ever been demanded under this section from farmers or persons peddling the products of their own farms and milk [illegible].

It may not be out of place, as some of the San Francisco papers have had something to say on this matter, to refer to some ordinance there enforced.

We quote from the general orders of the [illegible] board of supervisors, as follows: "The term 'peddlers' shall include all persons who shall carry from place to place, and sell or offer to sell, any goods or wares, except religious publications, newspapers, periodicals, water, flowers, confectionery, nuts or matches."

Among those licensed we find: "For peddlers of meats, fruit, game, poultry, eggs, cheese, butter and produce from hand vehicles or baskets, $10 per quarter."

Among those whose vehicles are required to be licensed are: "Only licensed vendors of milk, provisions, meat, produce and groceries."

We think no changes are necessary at this time [illegible] ordinance No. 1713.

E. J. W. STEMME,
S. G. SKIDMORE,
J. R. WILEY.

The report was read and placed on file.

The committee on streets and public property, to whom was referred the remonstrance against the proposed improvement of A street, reported that they had examined the remonstrance and found that it had not been signed by the requisite number of property-holders. The committee stated that they submitted with their report an ordinance providing for the time and manner of improving A street. The report was placed on file.

LAND FOR IMMIGRANTS.

Choice Farms for Sale.

4,000 ACRES, IN QUANTITIES TO SUIT PURCHASERS.

230 ACRES DUE SOUTH AND ADJOINING the Railroad Depot at Salem, all under cultivation, and suitable for grain or vegetables.

945 Acres, four miles southeast of Salem, on the railroad, with Mill creek running through it. This is the choicest farming land in Marion county, with fine springs, consisting in part of the old Rector donation claim, on which I raised the past year fifty bushels of wheat and three tons of timothy per acre. The first crop of oats ever raised on part of this land measured ninety-four bushels per acre, grain weighed and ground claimed by Mr. Alfred Stanton, of Salem.

2,700 Acres of prairie and light brush land, with timber for farming purposes, bounded by the Willamette River for four miles, beautiful lake on the east, boat landings all along the river, commencing four miles north of Salem—all choice grain land—the largest and most suitable body of land to be found in the Willamette Valley to be purchased by a colony. To be sold from $15 to $25 per acre. This land will all be immediately resurveyed, and can be sold in larger or smaller parcels, to suit purchasers. It can be subdivided to the best possible advantage, and I can offer any person or persons, or colony of persons, desiring to purchase homes in the best part of the Willamette Valley, near the city of Salem and within reach of the best social advantages, as well as most favorably located with respect to markets, greater advantages, on more favorable terms, than they can ever expect to realize again. AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE time and manner of improving that part of Second street lying between A and Taylor streets.

The City of Portland does ordain as follows:

Section 1. The proposed improvement of that part of Second street lying between the south side of A street and the south side of Taylor street shall be completed in the manner hereinafter provided on or before the first day of June, 1876.

Section 2. The surface of the street shall be cleared of all timber, plank or other obstructions (sidewalks of the proper width and grade, and plank roadways and intersections not herein provided to be relaid and otherwise in good condition excepted.) If the obstructions are not removed within three days after notice from the Superintendent of Streets they shall be removed by and become the property of the contractor.

Section 4. The grading, sidewalks, and sixteen foot roadway shall correspond as nearly as practicable to the provisions of sections 6, 7, 9 and 10 of Ordinance No. 793, entitled "An Ordinance in relation to the improvement of streets," except that the stringers for the roadway shall be 4 by 8 inches instead of 4 by 6 inches. The planking of the intersections described in section 3 of this Ordinance shall conform to the provisions of sections 6 and 7 of Ordinance No. 1250, entitled "An Ordinance to provide for the time and manner of improving that part of G street lying between North Fourth and North Sixth streets"

Section 5. The provisions of sections 11 and 12 of said Ordinance No. 793, shall apply to all lumber and material used in the improvement provided for by this Ordinance.

Section 6. The contractor shall take entire charge of the work during its progress, and shall be responsible for any loss or accident resulting from carelessness or neglect.

Section 7. The improvement shall be completed to the satisfaction of the Committee on Streets and Public Property and the Superintendent of Streets.

Section 8. The Committee on Streets and Public Property are hereby authorized to advertise for, receive proposals and enter into contract with the lowest responsible bidder or bidders for the improvement specified in this Ordinance.
